

Job Title: Youth Ministry Intern (Part-Time)

St. Louis Chinese Baptist Church is seeking a committed, Spirit-filled Christian leader with a passion for discipling youth through the gospel of Jesus Christ. The ideal candidate will be able to relate well to youth, parents, and adult volunteers. A theological education is required to lead and equip youth to grow in their faith in Christ.

Responsibilities

- Support the Church Pastor in overseeing and providing pastoral care to nurture the spiritual growth of the youth.
 - Lead weekly youth Sunday worship, youth Sunday school, and monthly Saturday youth fellowship.
 - Organize and oversee one annual summer camp for the church's youth.

Accountability

- Reports to the Church Pastor and the Head of the Education Department.
 - Submit a monthly ministry report to the Church Pastor and Head of the Education Department.
 - Attend Church Council meetings as requested.

Expectations

- A born-again Christian who demonstrates integrity and is dedicated to youth ministry.
 - Lives a lifestyle aligned with biblical principles, committed to prayer, and passionate about discipling youth with sound biblical knowledge and faith in Jesus Christ.
 - Develop a Bible teaching curriculum that reflects the full counsel of God's Word and addresses the spiritual, physical, emotional, and mental needs of the youth.
 - Teach the Bible with conviction, compassion, and care.
 - Provide monthly updates to the Church Pastor and Head of the Education Department on the progress of the youth ministry.
 - Attend Church Council meetings if involvement in youth ministry matters is required.

Requirements

- A lifestyle consistent with the biblical qualifications for leaders (1 Timothy 3:1–13; 2 Timothy 2; Titus 1:5–9).
 - Understanding of and commitment to the church's doctrinal beliefs and mission.
 - Willingness to uphold and serve in accordance with the Church Constitution.
 - Experience in youth ministry and pastoral care is preferred.
 - Willingness and ability to minister to people of diverse ethnic, cultural, and socio-economic backgrounds.
 - Must pass a background check and have legal working status in accordance with labor regulations.
 - Strong written and verbal communication skills.
 - Exemplary Christian faith and character.

Screening Process

All applicants must:

- Submit an application form, including details about their interest in the position and any relevant experience.
 - Participate in an interview with the Youth Ministry Committee to discuss expectations.
 - Undergo a basic background check (if over 18) and provide references.
